

DONOR AGREEMENT

BIG COTTONWOOD CANYON
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

NAME

ADDRESS

PHONE

EMAIL

Description of Donation. List the materials being given. Indicate whether they are originals or copies.

Attribution Information. Include such information as author/collector/photographer, and relationships to Big Cottonwood Canyon, or anything that would be helpful to give proper credit of the donation.

Additional Donation Information. List any special arrangements related to the donation. Does the donor request a digital copy of the materials. Should original materials be returned to donor. Are there restrictions on the use of donation.

Special Collections. If requested, your donated materials will be kept together so as not to spoil the integrity of the historical significance.

Brighton Institute's Use of the Donation. Brighton Institute reserves the right to store, use, and/or distribute the Donation in any legal manner it deems appropriate, including: duplication in any media now known or later developed, including books, post cards, tours, CDs, DVDs, ballads and songs, theatrical productions, paintings, compilations, indexes, research aids, transcriptions.

Donor's Use of Materials. Donor may use copies of donated materials or the original materials in ways that will not interfere with Brighton Institute's use of donated materials.

By signing below, you the Donor, grant and assign the donated materials to the Brighton Institute which may use it as specified by this agreement. Further, you acknowledge that you are the lawful owner of the donation, and have the authority to make this donation. You acknowledge that you will not receive any monetary or other compensation in exchange for your gift of the donated materials.

Printed name of Donor

Signature of Donor

Date

Printed name of Donor(s)

Signature of Donor

Date