

BIG COTTONWOOD CANYON HISTORICAL SOCIETY
7688 S. Big Cottonwood Canyon Road
Brighton, UT 84121

FINDING AID

JOLENE DESPAIN COLLECTION 1

TITLE	LDS Documents - Jolene Despain Collection
DATE RANGE	1964-2002
INSTITUTION	Big Cottonwood Canyon Historical Society 7688 S. Big Cottonwood Canyon Road, Brighton, UT 84121
EXTENT	Two Boxes
CREATOR	Jolene Despain
CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS	Collection must be used on site. Content may be copied. "Memories of Brighton" book sells for $10, depending on the copying costs.
LANGUAGE	English
PROCESSING NOTES	This collection was organized by subject.
DESCRIPTION	Jolene Despain grew up at the mouth of Big Cottonwood Canyon in the area where the plans were laid for building the Brighton Chapel on the Brighton Loop. She has lived in Brighton since 1979. Jolene knew many of the people who built the church and has been a member of the branch since moving to Brighton. She compiled the book in this collection, "Memories of Brighton." The collection contains historical documents related to the Brighton Branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Included in the collection are historical church meeting minutes, land and building appraisals, communications from community and church members, notes for writing the book, a script from the play "Celebration", and other Brighton church historical documents from 1964-2002.

INVENTORY

BOX	FOLDER	DESCRIPTION	DATES
1	1	Funding the building: appraisal and solicitations
1	2	Personal stories: experiences from community and church members
1	3	Communications: letters, correspondence about Jolene's book: draft notes and printing receipts
1	4	"Celebration" play: script, notes, stories, programs	1970-1986
1	5	"Memories of Brighton" book
1	6	Dedication service program, 1969, and addition, 2008
1	7	Church service programs	1991 and 1993
1	8	Utah State Historical Society presentation	2003
2	1	Photos
2	2	Historical records: meeting records	1967-1970